Julie and I (Joe Decker) Welcome you to our new E-Catalog in PDF format! This catalog was developed to help you easily navigate through the multiplied hundreds of framed and unframed Christian artworks offered on the Majestic Reflections web sites. Our new E-catalog accomplishes two important functions, first to make your Gallery experience an adventure for the senses. Secondly to give our customers a printable version of all our artworks.

Our E-catalogs are set up by artwork, that is to say that each art print will have a PDF Catalog that covers all the options framed and unframed for that individual print. All of the individual options within the E-catalog (framed or unframed prints) are linked to our web site through a simple link on the PDF Catalog page. If you have your internet connection on clicking this link will launch your browser and transport you to our web site for all the glass, signed print, and scripture verse insert options. Also all the current pricing will be on the web site. If a artwork is on sale you will see the details on the web through the E-catalog link. You can also order by phone or email if you like.

These E-catalogs are 100% printable using whatever printer you have connected to your computer. We have given you access to printing these E-catalogs at high resolution (200-300 dpi) and in full color (if you have a color printed available). Fell free to print all or part of any of our new E-catalogs and use them for your gallery browsing. All of these artworks are covered by copyright laws so we would ask you not to use the printed version for any commercial or private use. However please feel free to share the electronic or printed version of our E-catalogs with family and friends. Copyright laws apply to all of our images.

We would very much welcome your comments on our new E-catalogs (or any other question or comment you may have). Please feel free to email me Joe Decker at Joe@christian-art.biz with any of your questions or comments.

CHRISTIAN FINE ART

Graham Braddock, whose passion for painting started in childhood, is a largely self taught artist who has spent his whole life in New Zealand, - a little country which is as geographically removed from America, Europe and Britain as it is possible to get. As a result, he has developed his own, refreshingly unique approach to art.

Graham's masterly brush work and ample technical skills have been forged on the anvil of 35 years experience as a professional fine artist.

50 years of following Jesus, seeking to make Him known, seeking an increased anointing of the Holy Spirit, has added the language of Life to Graham's naturally keen perception, vivid imagination and inbuilt longing to make the unseen visible.

Many of Graham's paintings are visual parables where the homespun and the familiar become symbols of timeless truth. Other paintings inspire with half hidden words or imagery. Some of his paintings are just good, clean fun. Always there is the invitation to look more closely, to discover more, to reflect, to discuss with family and friends...
